New York's Greatest Display of Toys

ON MACY'S SIXTH FLOOR.

This great, bright, roomy Toy Store imites you to come tomorrow and view its treasures collected from every part of the world producing Toys, Dolls and Games; invites you to bring the children, for there is abundance of room; the aisles are broad; there is plenty of light; everything the children want to see is sceable, for the arrangement is as nearly perfect as ingenuity and experience could make it. A corps of well-trained assistants at your command.

Not only are there thousands of new Toys to interest you, but there is also a real live Santa Clous. A huge Railroad Terminal housing the newest and most ingenious electric and spring-driven railreads and trolley ears.

A miniature harbor of New York, with the famous sky line in the background, and in the foreground the bay, where steamboats, motor boats, spring-driven boats and sailboats flit about exactly as they do in the real harbor.

And, most wonderful of all, a 20-foot model of the world's largest steamship—the Hamburg-American Liner "Imperator," complete in every detail, is there to interest young and old alibe.

A magnificent exposition this, worthy of the Store that Santa Claus has made his headquarters SIXTH FLOOR every year for more than half a century

Holiday Hand Luggage

Bags and Suit Cases for Men and Women, at prices onefifth to one-half less than anywhere else in the city Macy's has in this offering (on the Fifth Floor) an extraordinarily wide assortment in Hand Luggage as regards size, leather, construction and price. As an illustration, we call attention to a remarkably fine series of Bags and Sult Cases, made of the finest pigskin from England. This pigskin is considerably better, both as to appearance and as to wear, than American pigskin tanned abroad and reshipped home again. Such goods have never been sold at anywhere near our price before-the saving as compared to prices now prevailing elsewhere in the city averages one-half.

The Macy Fitted Bag at $9.94-one item only out of dozens that might be quoted to illustrate Macy velues-is the lowest-prized reliable Fitted Bag offered for sale to-day in New York. Other stores sell similar Bags at $15.00.
